

Château du Seuil Rosé 2019

AOP Coteaux d'Aix-en-Provence 13°

The Château du Seuil range includes fresh, gourmet wines that can be opened for any occasion

Grapes

Syrah, Cabernet Sauvignon, Grenache, Rolle

At the vine

The terroir and the soils: clay-limestone, pebbly. Altitudes of the plots, between 300 and 500m.

Philosophy : Sustainable viticulture based on observation, prevention and attention on the nature balance.

In the cellar, vinification and aging

Direct pressing, low temperature fermentation.

In the glass

This rosé wine has a bright, clear salmon colour. Red fruits and white flowers aromas blossom on the first nose. A gourmet citrus juice carries through on the palate in a fresh and lively impulse. An elegant and exquisite final delights the taste-buds.

Tasting advice

This Château du Seuil rosé is ready to be savoured in the early summer heat offering a great spontaneous taste.

Food and wine

This Château du Seuil rosé can be enjoyed on its own as an aperitif or as a match for grilled meats and Mediterranean dishes.